Dear Ms. Rasco:

Thank you for meeting with me today. It was a pleasure to learn more about you and your children and how special they both are to you. Thank you, too, for your insights and advice on employment opportunities in the Administration.

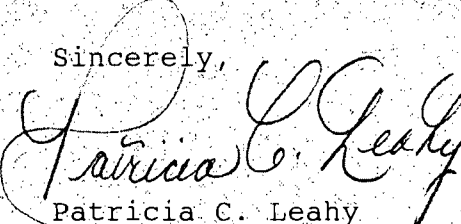

As you know, I am particularly interested in working with you. Please think of me if a position becomes available.

I have a special interest as well in working with and on behalf of the disabled. I appreciate very much your offering to call Tony Coehlo and Marca Bristo on my behalf. Working on The National Council on Disability or the President's Committee on Employment of People With Disabilities is of great interest to me. Thank you, too, for offering to send me the Business Week article on The National Council on Disability.

Assuming your schedule permits, I will call your office next week to discuss these opportunities further with you.

Once again, thank you for your time and interest in meeting with me.

Sincerely,

Patricia C. Leahy

AUG 29 REC'D

Dear Carol:

Thank you for the courtesy you extended to me and my family during our visit to The White House in June. I had intended to write before now, but one project or another interfered with my good intentions.

A friend of mine, Patricia Leahy, has wanted to meet you for some time. For thirteen years she served as Administrative Assistant to Congressman John Dingell. In 1993 she resigned from her job to spend time with her eight-year-old son who was born physically and mentally handicapped. Unfortunately, her son died approximately six months ago.

Pat Leahy is one of the most thoughtful women I have ever known. The two of you have a lot in common and I would appreciate your taking the time to meet with her at your convenience. Her telephone number is (703) 734-9537. I have enclosed a copy of her résumé for your review.

Dear Carol:

Thank you for taking the time to speak with me yesterday. I am enclosing a copy of Pat Leahy's resume. As I indicated in our conversation, Pat is a very dear friend so I am a biased source. Nevertheless I think that you will find that Pat has exceptional credentials. I am confident that she could make a valuable contribution to the administration if she has the opportunity to do so.

After speaking with you I called Pat and told her that all of your staff positions are currently filled. I also mentioned the Children Defense Fund possibilities that you suggested. Pat appreciated the information, but I suspect her real interest is in working with the administration if she can. If you ever have the time, I know she would be delighted to meet with you, even if there are no positions available at this time.

Thank you again for your interest. It was really good talking with you.

With best personal regards.

I am very truly yours,
